

Minimize light pollution

Outside lighting in the garden

Too much artificial illumination in the nighttime environment affects the growth of animals / plants and obstructs stargazing. Lighting fixtures used outside minimize these impacts